

Moshevet Yisrael

Menachem Av 2, 5778 - July 14, 2018

Parshat Matot-Masei / Shabbat Bet II

*Volume 21 Number 2
From the Office of the Jewish Panther*

Parshat Matot-Masei with Rav Gal!

This week's parashot start with the warning that the Torah gives us about vows.

We learn that our words do count and that if someone makes a vow (a vow is like a serious promise that one makes...) he/she needs to fulfill it (or cancel it with 3 judges, that's what we do on the day prior to Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur).

As a teenage, I was very shy when it came to speaking in front of people and maybe that's why I liked pantomime and at the age of 14 started to train to become a pantomime artist. But a year later, I thought to myself 'It's a shame that I'm not using any words' (although I still love pantomime...) and so I decided to learn magic. Eventually I decided that just using words in the form of speech also wasn't enough and so I began to learn how to sing.

So, why am I telling you about this?!

Because I want to reveal my own secret!

The way to succeed as a magician or singer (or any other profession you may decide to choose) is based on many hours of listening and being quiet.

The same goes for davening and respecting other people while they're soaking to us.

We need to listen in order to use our words in the best possible way.

So, listen to your friends, listen to your madrichim and to the tzevet.

It is that precious (and often challenging) listening that will bring you closer to fulfilling your own potential and to success!

Shabbat Shalom, Rav Gal

Shabbat Schedule

9:00—Shacharit

10:00 - Kiddush

10:40—Torah & Mussaf

11:45 —Parsha / Break

1:00—Lunch

Menucha

5:15—Shekem

5:45—Snif

6:30 Mincha & Pirkei Avot

7:20 - Third Meal—Slow Shira

8:49—Maariv & Havdalah

parsha stats by ou.org Matot Masei Stats of 54 sedras 42nd 43rd –

of 10 in Bamidbar 9th 10th – lines in a Torah 190 189 379
rank 29th 30th 1st
Parshiyot 9 8 17
P'tuchot 4 6 10
S'tumot 5 2 7
P'sukim 112 132 244
rank (Torah/Bam.) 24/7 12/5
1/1

Words 1484 1461 2945
rank 29/6 32/7 1/1
Letters 5652 5773 11425
rank 30/7 28/6 1/1

Mitzvot 2 6 8
positive 1 2 3
prohibitions 1 4 5

Carolyn Fingold & Shoshi Bursztyn

Yachad in the News!

Carolyn's favourite part of camp is Omanut.

Her favourite song is "Sweet Caroline"

Her superpower is doing laundry!

If she could visit anywhere it would be Montreal!

Shabbat Eidah Bet Won = Jake KBerg's Crew

BET TWO TORAH BY YAIR BOUHADANA & JACOB RABINOVITCH

This week's parsha is Motot and Maasei. The subject that will be discussed is only from Matot. It says, "If a man makes a neder -a vow- to HaShem to stop himself from doing something bad, he is not allowed to go against his word." Meaning, he can't do that which he vowed not to do. It says "אשה כי תדר נדר או אסרה איסר בבית אביה בנעוריה" which means if a woman makes a vow to HaShem in her father's house when she is young and the father knows and doesn't annul it, then the vow is maintained permanently. However, if the father stops her from vowing, then the vow is annulled, and HaShem will forgive her if she doesn't fulfill it. If the woman is married and she still didn't fulfill her vow and her husband knows about it on the day that she said it and he didn't act, then he needs to fulfill her vow, just like the father. But if he does act, and tell her not to vow then he can stop her from needing to fulfill the vow, and again, HaShem will forgive her. Shabbat Shalom.

Last Interview ever...for now at least Let's see how this goes With Jordana Ansel & Gita Margolese

Gita: I've never been in the newsletter, I'm not funny

Jordana: Did you know that Gita and I are Nechama's grandcampers?

Moshava: Ok, you're right. You guys aren't funny. We need a new plan. This is going to be the last interview. Seriously, I've been doing the same schtick for like a decade already. It's getting old

New plan with new people. Let's try words of wisdom with Itai Weisz and Ari Roz.

Jordana: What? Wait. Don't do this.

Moshava: Ugh—this is so tough. Ok. Wait, Rosie just walked in. You're British. That makes you inherently interesting. You make everything sound fancy and sophisticated. Say something!

Rosie: When you drink a cup of tea, you have to put the tea bag in first, and then the hot water and then milk, otherwise you're doing it wrong.

Moshava: keep going, what else are we doing wrong?

Rosie: I've got another thing. Canada, why are you celebrating your independence day, our Queen is on your money

Moshava: Ya, we're done here. Stay tuned for a new feature next week.

Meet Yoni Broth "The Soup" Rosh Bet Twoooo

Hi, my name is Yoni Broth. Everyone has been asking me about my last name.

Here's the story. My family came to America during the Irish potato famine. I mean, my family is clearly Polish and had nothing to do with the potato famine in Ireland, but it happened to be at the same time.

Where was I? Oh yeah—America. See, back in those days people thought "Soup" was just eating cooked vegetables and / or chicken. Then my great great great great grandpappy, Brothy McBroth had the idea to actually keep the hot water that the food was cooked in!

They named it Broth! The rest is history. My family made Soup what it is today. I am The Soup. I am Broth. This is my story. Next week, we will learn about my cousins, the Croutons.

A Day in the life of a Bet 2-er: Liela Silbiger

We wake up really late in the morning, not hearing the Ram Kol. Then the counselors have to rush us to be at Mifkad on time. We finally get to Mifkad halfway through, and then we all “daven” outside. After that is breakfast and daily Nikayon, which doesn’t help our bunk at all. Then we have our Peulot, but instead of actual sports, we play roofball or basketball instead. It’s a lot of fun. Then there’s our awesome Night Tochnit, where we all behave of course. Then it’s freezing showers and bedtime way past 10:00. Then we go to sleep and repeat the same thing the next day once again.

Bet 2 Word Search By:
Galil Neuer, Ayelet Brodt, Eliana Wainberg,
Shayna Erlich and Orli Frisch

Find these words in the word search!

MatotMasei	Sports
Bettwo	Respect
Soup	Crossword
Shabbet	Amped
Colourwar	Blackpanther
Crazy	Settlers

K	R	A	W	R	U	O	L	O	C	L	U	B	L	X
K	P	W	H	C	R	O	S	S	W	O	R	D	J	S
H	B	X	H	Z	B	H	R	W	C	T	E	N	E	K
U	Y	L	Z	E	H	B	F	T	M	M	T	T	C	D
I	B	O	M	A	S	E	I	M	C	S	T	E	Q	C
R	E	H	T	N	A	P	K	C	A	L	B	L	B	P
Y	F	G	E	T	C	E	P	S	E	R	D	I	J	T
Z	M	S	P	F	S	P	A	R	L	A	I	H	S	O
A	K	I	B	J	E	U	S	W	I	S	L	S	Q	T
R	X	Z	P	C	P	O	F	L	G	S	X	H	K	A
C	Y	C	P	A	R	S	H	A	I	A	M	A	X	M
F	G	A	G	Z	C	X	U	E	Q	D	W	B	T	H
I	O	Z	K	M	D	E	P	M	A	A	J	B	P	D
I	C	B	T	S	T	R	O	P	S	H	G	E	H	R
A	G	F	X	P	Q	Y	Q	L	R	Z	V	T	W	L

Top 10 things that you missed during colour war

10. Jeremy ate all your shekem.
9. Whoever killed the most mosquitoes got a bonus 500 points.
8. Your captain's actual voice.
7. Noach took PAIRS on the ark.
6. Moshe took zero animals on the ark.
5. What Yoni Collins' face actually looks like.
4. The number of trees that died to make the theme songs and marching songs possible.
3. Yachad spent 2 days getting the ending of CW ready!
2. Jeremy is still eating your shekem.
1. That calling the teams "Team Player, Team Work and Team Spirit" was done on a dare. Yep. That happened.

Moshevet Yisrael!

This week, the tochnit theme was Israeli politics and electoral system. We created a mock elections in machane to replicate what it's like to vote in Israel. As we saw, you vote for a party by submitting a paper slip of their letter code.

May we hope that the biggest controversy that an election ever creates be eating healthy food for one day!

We also learned about the cities of Israel in colour war and ended 15 year drought for the Blue team! What a week! We can't wait for what's in store for next week. We won't take away any shekem though. We promise..... kinda.. Can't wait to see

ישראל איז אמיידינג

There were 25 parties in the 2015 Israel election.
895 votes went to the Pirate Party
Actually. There's a Pirate Party

TZEVET SPOTTING 2010

Sheldis
Ilan
Eisenstadt
Josh
Wellman
Koby

Welcome to the guests who are joining us for Shabbat

Orie & Jen Niedzwiecki

Dan & Corrie Diamond

Dikla & Mike Weitzner

Jacob Herman is a madrich in Eidah Gimmel and LOVES getting high fives instead of shaking hands on Shabbat. Go up to him and give him a high five and say out-loud
SHABBAT SHALOM JACOB HERMAN AND SHABBAT SHALOM!

This Week's Shout-Out to the 2004 Boston Red Sox, the 2016 Chicago Cubs, the 2018 Blue team and the 2019 Toronto Maple Leafs.

Yes, read into that one!

