Parshat Pinchas— Shabbat Eidah Bet 1!

Volume 21 Number 1

From the Office that loves Torah & Mischief

Dvar Torah with Rav Gal - Me and My Start-Up Person

In this week's parasha Moshe hands over his leadership to his 'start up person', Yehoshua.

Moshe teaches us that we can never retire from our work or from our responsibilities if we don't make sure that someone else can do the job successfully, instead of us.

You guys are in a young age and you will most likely work in more than one job/role in your life.

As part of Am Yisrael we are obligated to be considerate and care for the people and for our place of work. We need to make sure to pass on our success to other people and to do the best we can to leave our job in the right time, after we find the best people to replace us.

Sometimes we'll need a few or many people and sometimes we only need one person to replace us, like in Moshe's case.

It's not easy to replace someone who was a great success, but on the other hand-IF WE WERE CHOSEN then we have to know that WE CAN DO IT!

Hashem choose all of us to be part of the chain of people who are passing on the Torah! This is similar to a boss who invests in his staff and eventually chooses one of them to replace him completely when he's ready to retire.

B"H I am wishing you all to be the person who accepts the responsibility that you have, whether it's in your bunk, during peulot, during the meals, during davening and so much more!

Make sure to fulfill your obligations but also make sure to pass on your responsibility when you can't fulfill it yourself.

BET ONE TORAH BY MAX SILBERGER - B4

This week's parasha starts with the story of Pinchas. However, this is only in the first aliyah. The rest of the parasha talks about korbanot. Seeing this, why is the parasha called Pinchas?

This is trying to show us that the story of Pinchas is more important than the story of the korbanot. Most people might think that the story of the korbanot is more important, especially since it's so much bigger than the story of Pinchas, but it's actually the opposite. We can learn from this that as many korbanot as we might do, it's how we treat others that is the most important.- Max Silbiger B4

Interview with Zach Brown, Ezra Katzman, Isaac Safran, Featuring Yoni Collins Not Orital

Zach – I'm here, what's up. How proud are you of me!!!! I put my campers to sleep!

Moshava – Isn't it your job to put your kids to sleep?

Zach – Ya, but I'm a chiller.

Ezra – I'm proud of you. Can I get plain chocolate milk?

Zach – I don't drink soda. You know I don't drink soda.

Isaac – I drink water.

Moshava: If you could add any peulah what would be?

Yoni – Peulah off.

Orital – I'm here, what do you need?

Moshava: It's fine. We're good.

Orital: Wait, I thought you wanted to interview me. Forget this, we're not friends.

Zach: Can I be in the interview this week?

Moshava: This IS the interview, we're halfway through.

Zach: Are you serious? Can we start again and make it funny? Why do you have so much random stuff here. Can we have a rave?

Ezra – We had that last night.

Zach: Ya, for like 10 minutes.

Isaac: Is this like a coveted thing to be in the interview? Is everything we're saying begin written down?

Moshava: Isaac, any final words?

Isaac: What, how did this end so quickly! I didn't answer anything!

Meet Jake K-Berg The Dance Machine Of San Diego

I love people. I hate spiders. No, actually, I get bugged out by them. HaHa! I said bugged out and I was talking about a spider. Ok seriously, I love being back at camp. I love dancing. It makes me feel so great.

I just finished my service in the IDF. The army was a great experience, but they don't have that much dancing. I tried to bring my super cool dance moves to the army.

My commanding officer said that my dancing would help Israel because if our enemies would see me dance, they'd all run away. I think that means that I'm pretty amazing at dancing.

I'm also from San Diego. I know a guy named Fraim. It's true. His name is Fraim. He wears glasses.

Camp update By Yamaya Newman and Ayelet schrier (G1)

Camp has just begun and its already so much fun!

We have made so many new friends we never want this summer to end!

We have done baking and more and can't wait to see what else is in store!

We have become DJ pros- we learnt how to make music high and low!

We may be small but we are strong. Bet one will be remembered for long!

Top 10 things that new campers & tzevet realized right away!

10. Milk Crates are suddenly way better than any of the furniture you have in your house.
9. Weather in Canada is manic-depressive and you need to wear all your layers at all times.
8. Moshava people dance to basically everything.
7. Our videographer walks around with a TV studio on his shoulder. Wow, a portable TV studio. In other news, Ronald Reagan is the President.
6. Apparently it's normal here to have people chasing you around all day taking pictures and asking you to smile.
5. Bingo is so much more fun than I remember it.
4. If your name isn't Talia, Naama or Jake....well that's just unusual.
3. Am I going insane that every time I go into the beit Knesset I actually expect there to be paper towel in the dispenser?
2. Top 10 lists are just an approximation.

Moshevet Yisrael!

Hey! We're so excited for this summer and to turn machane into Israel! So far, we've put up a lot of decorations around camp with more to come! When walking around machane, make sure to look out for the Israeli street signs, Shvil Yisrael trail markers, our green city signs at the front of camp and all the other decorations. Also, make sure to read our daily newspaper, Iton Tzion, and make sure to answer the daily raffles!

We hope you're as excited as we are for what's in store! There will be a different theme every week and constantly new things happening! Check the tochnit board outside the chadar for updates and information!

Can't wait for the rest of summer!
