Parshat Balak with Rav Boaz

*THE GREAT WOMEN OF ISRAEL ***

This DVAR TORAH is dedicated to the great women of Camp Moshava!

Americans love Baseball. Canadians love Hockey.
Australian's love Vegemite. Women love Israel!

In a few weeks we commemorate Tisha B'Av, the saddest day of the year! On that fateful day, the Meraglim spread their negative report about the Land of Israel. The lashon hara they spoke about Eretz Yisrael made such an impact that the 9th of Av was branded as a day of tragedy and national mourning highlighted with the destruction of BOTH Batei Mikdash. The slander spoken against Israel changed the Jewish calendar for 2000 years!

The Torah seems to counter-balance the lack of appreciation for the Holiness of the Land of Israel by 10 of the men who spied out the land with an episode in our parsha about a group of 5 special women!

The incredible daughters of TZLAFCHAD were MACHLA, NOA, CHAGLA, MILKA and TIRTZA! They truly loved the land and, after their father died with no sons to inherit him, they took initiative and asked Moshe for the right to his portion of the land.

Moshe brought their claim to Hashem who, because of their request, decided to amend the laws of inheritance! Bnot Tzlafchad's efforts resulted in Hashem adding a parsha to the Torah, forever! No doubt, it was their love for Eretz Yisrael that made all the difference!

Like Tzlafchad's daughters the women of Moshava are known for their great love for and dedication to the Land of Israel.

Just as we saw in recent times the Nation of Israel return to the Land, may we all be zoche to see the day of Tisha B'Av transform to a day of happiness and euphoria with the building of the Third Beit HaMikdash!

SHABBAT SHALOM!

DVAR TORAH: EITAN YUNGER

In this week's פרשה, Parshat Pinchas, the daughters of צלפחד approach Moshe with a question. They asked, "our father died in the מדבר and he was not in קרה, he died because of his own sin, According to the laws that you taught us so far, when a man dies his portion of the land goes to his closest male relative, we want the land to go to whoever we marry, not just to our uncles. Unlike Moshe saying "no" right away like he said to the last person who questioned Korach) He said, "I agree, lets hear what 'ה' has to say about it." The lesson behind this is that when you have an opinion that can change a rule that you think is unfair, you can go speak out. But if you have an opinion like Korach's that you know won't change a rule you can get in big trouble. Fun fact: Eytan Ks middle name is פנהס. Thats all folks!

Moshava Memes! Leba Gershon

Hi everyone. I was a Rosh Eidah last year, so if you want to read my backstory about my life as a ballet dancer and hotdog vendor at minor league baseball games, then you need to find last year's Moshava newsletter.

I want to use my shabbat Bet I newsletter space to ask you, the Moshava public, a very important question.

So.... My last name is Gershon. That you know. What you don't know is that there's a really cute boy I like in Israel whose name is....ready for this? GERSHON!

What's the move?

Gershon and Leba Gershon?

Is that too much. Also, my father's name is Gershon. Yes. His name is Gershon Gershon!

It's crazy!

Would our kids be made fun of?

Oh the challenges and the questions life has for me.

Anyway—I'd like to hear your thoughts. Please come up to me today Shabbat and tell me. SHABBAT GERSHON!

DAY IN THE LIFE OF A BET-ONE-ER
 ORA KIDEKEL, TALIA ASPLER,
 TUTI BLANK, SARAH GRAUMAN

We hear ramkol in the morning and most of us cover our heads with our blankets. We only get up when Ruthie yells "5 minutes to mifkad" in an annoying voice. We rush to mifkad and Leba lectures us about being late. Talia says one of her "funny" jokes and we go to tefillah. After doing tefillah (where it's mostly the boys) we go eat breakfast. We argue with each other about taking one pancake. We go do "Nikayon" where we usually play on Sarah's DS. When its time to go to our sport peulah we sit out. We go through the peulot then lunch. We eat and ask if we can stay at our bunk for mincha and an anonymous counsellor says yes. We chill and chat until its time for more peulot. We go and when it's dinner we go to the chadar. We eat and Talia Ames tries the vegetarian option. After dinner we go to our night tochnit then shower and talk. By: G3

Moshevet Aliyah!

We started off our week with our virtual reality Aliyah Experience—complete with the in-flight safety video from EL-AL, and making our own Teudat Zehuts

(Israel ID cards) followed by a post-Aliyah ice cream party!

The adventure continued as we broke out Colour War—Moshevet Aliyah Style!

The teams were about three big ways that Jews from North America make Aliyah today.

Naaleh (red team) for Aliyah in High School.

Garin Tzabar - Lev L'Chayal (green team) for Aliyah through the army. Nefesh B'Nefesh (blue team) for Aliyah of all ages and families!

Stay tuned as we transition to Aliyah in the future!

Aliyah Fun Facts!

Aliyah for Birds???? Per square kilometer, Israel has one of the highest levels of bird traffic in the world with over 500 million migrating birds crossing its airspace!

This week's shout-out goes to the Yurple team.

I gave them a hard time during colour war and they were just trying really hard to have fun. Though they did kidnap Aquaman...Ugh. Forget it - No Yurple. Shout-out to Aquaman!
